About MSCEIT: The MSCEIT is an ability measure of emotional intelligence. It consists of 141 questions with 8 different types of items.

About Certification: Test publishers provide certification for their assessments, and in the case of MSCEIT, Multi-Health Systems (MHS), is the publisher. MHS requires everyone to be certified to be able to purchase the MSCEIT. I developed the certification course content and together with colleague Lisa Rees provide certification training.

Certification Pre-Work: There are several steps to complete before moving to certification content.

MSCEIT Online Prework: Watch three videos (each about 15 minutes).

Take the MSCEIT: About 45 minutes.

Your MSCEIT Feedback: Once you take the MSCEIT, a MSCEIT certified person will give you feedback and will e-mail your MSCEIT report after the feedback session. The session takes 1 hour to 1 hour 10 minutes. Remember to give us adequate lead time to schedule time with you before the workshop begins (feedback is built into one-on-one certification).

Review of Materials: you will get access to a 150-slide PowerPoint file and should read through slides 1 to 74 before the first day of the workshop.

Workshop: The test publisher requires a certain number of hours of instructional time. We generally start about 8:30 or 9 AM NYC time and end about 5 (the exact start time is a function of participant time zone). A 59-item multiple choice exam is given afterwards and then your certificate is issued by MHS. We quickly review the first set of slides, addressing your questions. We then present information on each of the 4 abilities: what it is, how it is measured, scoring low or high and a case study. One or more complete cases, with role-play feedback, follows.

Follow-Up Support: We will stay in touch with you as you use the MSCEIT and will be available for consultation.

Fees: Certification fee is 2895 USD per person. Once certified you will be able to purchase the MSCEIT for your clients (Resource Report is currently about 68 USD and the Personal Summary report about 59 USD).
